

Occupational Licensing Reform Coalition

SB 207 was the result of collaboration among a diverse coalition of business, workforce, legal, faith-based, and community organizations committed to expanding employment opportunities for Georgians with criminal records. Georgia Justice Project gratefully recognizes the following organizations for their partnership and advocacy:

- Americans for Prosperity–Georgia
- Atlanta Community Food Bank
- Center for Employment Opportunities
- Council of State Governments
- Faith and Freedom Coalition
- Georgia Center for Nursing Excellence
- Georgia Center for Opportunity
- Georgia Chamber
- Georgia Public Policy Foundation
- Institute for Justice
- Metro Atlanta Chamber
- National Basketball Association Social Justice Coalition
- ReNforce
- Responsible Business Initiative for Justice
- R Street
- Small Business Majority
- Unify.US
- and many additional advocates and stakeholders who supported this effort.
